

Workers' Compensation Information

This notice shall be provided to every employee at the time of hire and immediately after the injury, or as soon thereafter as possible under the circumstances of the injury.

- The Pennsylvania Workers Compensation Act provides wage loss and medical benefits to employees who cannot work, or who need medical care, because of a work related injury.
- Benefits are required to be paid by insurance provided by your employer. Your employer is required to post the name of the company responsible for paying workers compensation benefits at its primary place of business and at its sites of employment in a prominent and easily accessible place, including, without limitations, areas used for the treatment of injured employees or for the administration of first aid.
- You should report immediately any injury or work related illness to your employer.
- Your benefits could be delayed if you do not notify your employer immediately.
- If your claim is denied by your employer, you have the right to request a hearing before a workers compensation judge.
- The Bureau of Workers Compensation cannot provide legal advice. However, you may contact the Bureau of Workers Compensation for additional general information at: Bureau of Workers Compensation, 1171 South Cameron Street, Room 103, Harrisburg, Pa 17104-2501; telephone number within Pennsylvania (800) 482-2383; telephone number outside of this Commonwealth (717) 772-4447; TTY (800) 362-4228 (for hearing and speech impaired only); www.state.pa.us, PA Keyword: workers comp.
